Re: United States v. James Cahill
20 Cr. 521 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

Defendant James Cahill's ("Cahill") sentencing hearing is scheduled for May 18, 2023 at 2:00 pm. Cahill does not wish to adjourn that sentencing date. However, he does respectfully request that the due date for his sentencing submission be extended from the current date of May 4, 2023 to May 8, 2023. I recently concluded a trial and my ability to attend to all of my cases has been compressed as a result. Additionally, I have lengthy sentencing memorandum due in a complex racketeering/murder case within a few days of the current due date in this case. This Sunday through next Wednesday, I will be travelling. For these reasons, the availability of the extra weekend to work on Cahill's memorandum, the drafting which is currently in process and is a considerable task, will be of great assistance to the defense's ability to prepare for sentencing. The government, by Assistant United States Attorney Frank Balsamello, consents to this application so long as the government's filing due date is also extended by four days to May 15, 2023.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

Sanford Talkin
